BirdLife South Africa’s Conservation League Donors stand a chance to win a 4-night stay for two at Zimanga Private Game Reserve in northern KwaZulu-Natal valued at R40 000.

The prize includes accommodation, all meals, four game drives, one lagoon or scavenger hide session, one Mkombe or Behjane hide session and one overnight hide session. Zimanga is the first reserve in Africa designed for avid safari enthusiasts while simultaneously addressing the needs of wildlife photographers of all levels, offering exclusive wildlife-viewing experiences and innovative photographic opportunities unlike any found elsewhere on the continent. The prize needs to be redeemed by April 2022 (booking subject to availability).

All existing and new Conservation League Donors who sign up and pay before 31 August 2021 will stand a chance to win this awesome prize. The draw will take place during the Conservation Conversation webinar on 7 September 2021.

To qualify as a Conservation League Donor, supporters need to be paid-up members of BirdLife South Africa (R610 for ordinary members and R425 for senior citizens) and make a minimum donation of R3000. We are able to issue a Section 18A tax certificate for your donation, which means that your contribution to bird conservation is tax deductible.

To be entered into the lucky draw, please select:

☐ I am already a Conservation League Donor
☐ I would like to add my donation (minimum R3000) to my membership and become a Conservation League Donor
☐ I would like to join BirdLife South Africa as a Conservation League Donor

Members receive:
• Six issues of African Birdlife magazine a year
• 12 digital newsletters a year

As a Conservation League Donor you will:
• Be contributing to the conservation of South Africa’s birds and their habitats.
• Have your name on the scroll included on the BirdLife South Africa’s website and in BirdLife South Africa’s Annual Report and Annual Financial Statement.
